

MAD WITH JEALOUSY, MAN MURDERS WIFE AND LOVER

Horrible Crime Committed On San Francisco's Streets Angry Husband Uses Gun and Knife

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Murder in revenge for wifely infidelity was committed shortly before noon today on the open street, at the corner of Powell and Jackson. One man, the despoiler of another's honor, lies dead while the erring wife, shockingly cut, is dying at the Harbor Hospital. The murderer-husband has been arrested and has made his statement to Captain of Detectives Coby. Shortly before 12 o'clock today a man who gave the name of Harlow notified the police of the bloody tragedy. He had been an eye-witness of the affair from the platform of a Powell street car. When the police arrived on the scene they found the victim of a husband's wrath stretched lifeless on the pavement, shot to death, and the woman moaning in terrible agony beside him. She had been disemboweled by a knife thrust.

GOVERNMENT BEGINS WORK OF PUNISHING REBATERS

NO ADVANCE IN PRICE OF OIL

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Charles M. Pratt, secretary of the Standard Oil Company, said today that the company has no intention of advancing the price of oil. Mr. Pratt said: "The statement attributed to Mr. Chamberlain of the National Petroleum Association of Cleveland that such an advance is to be made is entirely unwarranted and absolutely unfounded. Mr. Chamberlain, who represents a competitor of this company, is challenged to reveal the source of his misinformation."

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Preparations for the investigation by the Federal government of the charges against the Chicago & Alton Railroad in connection with the granting of rebates to the Standard Oil Company of Indiana were commenced today. Subpoenas will be issued tomorrow for witnesses, the first of whom will testify on August 14th.

NO QUORUM OF GRAND JURORS

On Hunt for Absentee

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—For the third time in the history of the present grand jury, and the second time within two weeks, no meeting could be held this morning because of the lack of a quorum. The members waited for a twelfth man from 10:15 until 11:30, and then adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon by which time Detective Burns will have rounded up another juror. A number of witnesses were present this morning to testify in connection with the telephone bribery cases, and these were ordered to return this afternoon. J. Musgrave, who is to testify in connection with some car strike battery cases, was also present at the morning session, but it is thought that these cases will not be gotten round to until the next session of the jury.

DOES MISS WATSON'S DEFENSE OF OFFICER HAWSE MEAN LOVE?

MISS MAYBELLE WATSON.

Think Cupid Rode Waves at Columbia Wreck Horror

BERKELEY, Aug. 5.—Out of the terrible sea tragedy that came with the wreck of the steamer Columbia last month has flowered a strange romance, in which the names of Miss Maybelle Watson and Third Officer Hawse, two of the most famous figures in all the events of that ocean horror, now are linked by those who love to discuss a weird and attractive romance. The story told in THE TRIBUNE yesterday of Miss Watson's plans to prepare an affidavit, in which she proposed to defend Officer Hawse from the charges of cowardice and unofficerlike conduct, has provided the foundation for the romantic romance of the wreck. It would not be strange, say those who are wise in the ways of Cupid, if the Berkeley maiden's interest in the gallant officer should be unaccompanied with the tremulous feeling which marks the entrance of Cupid's dart, and Officer Hawse has already manifested signs of the most ardent interest and deep concern for all that has to do with Maybelle Watson. Now the public, which has read columns and columns of all that happened to both Miss Watson and to Officer Hawse and to their fellow passengers on the wrecked Columbia, await a bit of definite news that will clinch the belief so many hold.

MOORS ABOUT CASA BLANCA RETREAT AFTER BLOODY BATTLE

Massacre Feared by Europeans

TANGIER, Aug. 5.—The latest advice from Casa Blanca says that most of the hostile Moorish bands surrounding the towns have retired after a bloody fight with the natives inside. Signs have been arranged by which the French cruiser Gallie will bombard the native quarter of Casa Blanca in the event of a attack upon Europeans. The French cruiser Duchayla has gone to Massaga, off the west coast of Morocco, in answer to the appeals of Europeans there who reported that the natives were greatly excited and that it was feared that there would be a duplication of the recent massacre at Casa Blanca.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT WITNESSED BY 1000 PLEASURE SEEKERS

Gasoline Tank Exploded

Fierce flames flared from an exploding tank of gasoline at the Fairview picnic grounds, near Martinez, Contra Costa county, yesterday, enveloped three men and a woman, and, in the presence of a thousand horrified spectators, the four were terribly burned before rescued. One of the men and the woman will probably die. While merry picnickers hovered about at a safe distance, Pearl Frisbie, advertised to make a balloon ascension at Fairview Park yesterday afternoon, was throwing gasoline on the fire beneath the cup of the air vessel. The can in which Frisbie was carrying the gasoline from the tank became ignited, and the flame traveled to the tank itself. Then followed a fearful explosion, the burning gasoline being hurled all over Frisbie. His wife hurried to his rescue, and in an effort to smother the fire on his clothing, was herself enveloped by the blazing gasoline. Jack Martin of Richmond then rushed to the rescue of the woman, and he, too, was grasped by the flames. Then P. Murphy came from the crowd with the hope of saving one of the three burning people, and he was seized by the flames, so, in the presence of a thousand picnickers, these four people were blazing like torches. Men finally managed to extinguish the flames that were fast roasting to death Frisbie and his wife, Martin and Murphy. So badly burned were Frisbie and his wife that both will probably die. Martin and Murphy are not so badly burned and will recover. None of the other spectators were injured by the explosion.

"I Would Vote for Conviction In All These Graft Cases!" SAYS A TALESMAN AT THE THEODORE V. HALSEY TRIAL

He Believes in the Guilt of Louis Glass

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Theodore V. Halsey, on trial in Judge Dunne's court, was treated to an unpleasant experience this morning when talesmen were being examined. Hubert Allen, an employee of the Western Electric Company, volunteered a sweeping statement in reply to the question whether he had an opinion or not. "I must say that in my opinion," said Allen, "I should vote for conviction right straight through on all these graft cases. If I had been on the Glass jury I certainly would have voted for conviction." Halsey fixed his eye intently on the talesman and seemed to hear this impromptu verdict with some agitation. Three jurors were passed to the box this morning in the examination of talesmen for a Halsey jury. They are: James Burke, John S. Young, 224 Grove street, former proprietor of the Russ House and Netherlands, Edward Skahan, 2389 Baker street, grocer. These, added to the four men accepted, make a total of seven men in the jury box at the time of the noon adjournment.

BOLD ATTEMPT MADE TO WRECK A TRAIN

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 5.—News was received yesterday that an attempt was made yesterday to wreck the New York-Chicago flyer on the Pennsylvania railroad just outside of Allegheny. Splice bars had been nailed to a tie and rested on each of the rails on track No. 4, but the enormous weight of the Mongol engine drawing the train prevented the derailment. Detectives have been unable to obtain a clue as to the identity of the authors of the outrage.

PHONE OPERATORS OUT ON A STRIKE

No Service in Butte, Mont.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 5.—Twenty telephone operators went on a strike here today in compliance with the request of the Montana Federation of Labor. The strike was ordered as a sympathetic movement for the telephone operators in Butte, and several other cities are also without telephone service for a similar reason. The Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company has applied for a temporary injunction restraining a boycott of the company and argument thereon will be had before United States Judge Hunt tomorrow.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

County Officials Make Reports and Various Minor Matters Are Brought to Attention.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning all the members of the board, save Supervisor Rowe, were present.

An election to select three trustees for the Alameda County Fair for the year 1920 was ordered for Saturday, September 12, of this year. It will be held at Sprung's Hotel and the polls will be kept open between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. Joe Sprung, L. Donnell and J. Spinetti were appointed judges of the election.

A communication was received from the First National Bank of Berkeley to the effect that on the 3rd day of July, 1920, the County Tax Collector illegally sold bank stock, together with the interest of the bank in question in certain real property in that town, namely, lot 34, block 147, of the Steele tract. It also set forth that, as a consequence of the alleged illegal sale, now that five years have elapsed, Collector Barker was about to issue a deed to said property to the State of California. The communication also set forth that all the proceedings were illegal and void, and asked that the same be vacated and set aside.

The matter was referred to the District Attorney.

GRANTED PERMISSION.

A resolution was adopted granting Justice Mortimer Smith of Oakland and Alameda County permission to leave the State not to exceed sixty days.

An instance of Supervisor Bridge, a resolution was adopted calling an election for the 14th of September at the Lockwood schoolhouse for the purpose of determining whether or not a sanitary system shall be established at Fitchburg.

Thomas F. Dunne and J. H. Alameda appeared before the board and testified to the authenticity of the signatures of the petition for the establishment of the sanitary district referred to. A petition signed by J. H. Alameda, M. F. Smith and ten others asked the board to place candidates as follows on the ballot at the election in question, all being residents of Fitchburg: William J. Field, for the position of sanitary assessor and Thomas F. Dunne, Levi J. Grant, Albert T. Newth, John F. Kingston and J. M. Moore for members of the sanitary board.

The application for relief of Flora Goodfield, aged 34 years, a resident of Livermore, was referred to Supervisor Homer.

A map of Foothill Park No. 2 was filed, but with the understanding that none of the streets contained in it were accepted as county roads.

M. D. Silva, James J. O'Toole, E. F. Gibson and twenty-one other residents of Brookline petitioned for the appointment of George F. Brickwedel as poundmaster of those districts. The appointment was made as desired.

A petition signed by Gilbert Wyman, J. J. Frost and twenty others asked that Austin avenue for two blocks from the southern line of East Fourteenth street to East Tenth street, be accepted as a county road. The request was referred to the county surveyor.

HOSPITAL COMMITTEE.

The hospital committee was empowered to purchase an iron tank for the county infirmary at a cost not to exceed $350. It was also empowered to repair the door of the Receiving Hospital.

A. T. Biddle, secretary of the board of trustees of Union high school district No. 2, sent in a communication to the effect that that board had decided to ask the Supervisors for $1500 for the maintenance of the high school of that district. The communication was referred to the committee of the whole.

Addison Goodrich, G. E. Parker and twenty other residents of Melrose petitioned for the appointment of George F. Brickwedel as poundmaster of those districts. The request was referred to Supervisor Bridge and County Surveyor Haviland.

On the recommendation of County Surveyor Haviland, the pipe line on the Yoothill road, which was laid by C. D. Vincent, was accepted.

REQUISITIONS GRANTED.

Requisitions from officers as follows were granted: County Superintendent of Schools, $3.50; the District Attorney, costing $11.75; Sheriff, repairing toilet, jailer, storekeeper of the hall of records, was the first case called, and Attorney Fairall asked that he be given until tomorrow to plead.

Judge Weiler consented to this, and Mr. Fairall said that he would probably demur at that time.

Mr. Zimmer appeared in a rather dejected condition today and sat beside his attorney without so much as exchanging a comment while waiting for his case to be called. Immediately after the proceedings were over he left the court room and would not consent to be interviewed.

CARNIVAL IS ENDORSED

Director-General Miller Thanks the Board of Supervisors for Its Prompt Action.

The Board of Supervisors this morning without a moment's hesitation endorsed the exposition and carnival to be held in Alameda Park by the adoption of the following resolution:

"Whereas, The Oakland Chamber of Commerce has undertaken, in public spirit, the work of preparing and directing a project known as the Alameda County Exposition and Carnival, the purpose of which is to promote, advance and encourage the development of the resources of Alameda county; and

"Whereas, An executive committee, representing the varied interests of the county, has formulated plans for said exposition and carnival on a scale which promises to surpass all previous efforts of this kind; and

"Whereas, We believe the opportunity to exhibit our tremendous resources before visitors from all sections of the state and to demonstrate to them the magnitude of our manufacturing and agricultural interests; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county hereby pledges its support to this commendable movement; and, be it further

"Resolved, That the clerk of this board be instructed to communicate with the director-general of the said Alameda County Exposition and Carnival to the end that he and the members of the executive committee may be assured of our co-operation."

BOARD THANKED.

B. P. Miller, who is to act as director-general of the exposition and carnival in question, then arose and said:

"I want to heartily thank the Board of Supervisors for their kindly endorsement of the exposition and carnival. I assure that every citizen of Alameda county will be proud of the exhibition at the park."

"It is our intention to make a showing which the county never had before and show up its manufactures and its resources."

GRAND TIME.

"We are going to have a grand time and show the strangers without our gates that Alameda county is sufficient in herself and that both in the matter of her manufactures and resources this position will show that she is able to do things. I thank you very much for your endorsement."

SLEEPING GIRL STEPS OUT OF THIRD-STORY WINDOW

Falls to Cement Pavement 25 Feet Below; Concussion of Brain Results, Yet She May Survive.

Followed in her dreams by phantoms intent upon doing her injury, pretty 15-year-old Sophie Christensen, whose home is near Nile, but who for the past week has been visiting friends living at 254 Twenty-sixth avenue, San Francisco, arose from her bed some time after midnight, walked to her bedroom window, three floors from the ground, and stepped out.

The girl fell to the cement pavement twenty-five feet below, and lay motionless for some time. The attending surgeons, however, believe that the patient will survive her frightful fall.

Sophie Christensen was visiting at the home of Miss Anna Schuitze and had been in the city about a week and has been visiting with her friends during her periods of consciousness at the hospital. She has said that she believed there was a balcony beneath her bedroom window and this would indicate that she was awake when she took her last plunge to the pavement. Her friends, however, are inclined to believe that she was walking in her sleep and was in a somnambulistic state when the accident happened. Her folks have been communicated with and she will be removed to some private institution as soon as the surgeons believe it safe to move her.

1000 FLEE FROM BUILDING AS FIRE RUSHES TO IT

Explosion Sends Flames Into Structure Occupied by Offices of Western Union and Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—A fire started this afternoon in a five-story building occupied by the F. O. Pierce Paint Co. and spread rapidly through that building. The offices of the Associated Press are upon the same floor as the headquarters of Superintendent Mulford in the Western Union Building, in the front of the building on the Broadway side.

There was an explosion of materials in the paint shop which gave the fire great headway and added to the alarm of persons in the nearby buildings. There was great excitement in the upper floor of the Western Union building, where more than one thousand persons are employed, many of them young women, but all left the building in an orderly manner.

Firemen, in order to fight the flames, were obliged to destroy the six large Western Union cables, interrupting the gold and stock ticker service. A ten foot court separates the building from which the fire originated from the building in which the Associated Press occupies the top floor. The fire burst through the rear of the paint store it swept up this court, which acted as a natural flue, and licked in the windows facing upon it.

All of the employees of the several large offices and business buildings contiguous to the fire were dismissed and hundreds of batties were congregated upon the sidewalk, many of them hysterical. The fire was brought under control at 2:25 though the flames were still burning fiercely upon the lower floor of the building.

Though the offices of the Associated Press are situated in the Western Union building, the service was not interrupted.

The presses of the Evening Mail were soaked with water and put out of commission temporarily.

WOMEN AND YOUNG GIRLS ATTACKED BY BRUTES; MOB VENGEANCE THREATENED

Grave State of Affairs in New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The fact that yesterday mob vengeance held sway and lynching was narrowly averted, has added to the seriousness of the situation in this city, caused by the recent remarkable series of crimes in which women and young girls are the victims.

The mob attacks reveals a state of public exasperation approaching frenzy, which it is feared may easily lead to serious disorders.

Prompt action by the police alone saved the two men accused on Sunday from summary justice, especially in the case of George Kestner, a Russian bookbinder, around whose neck a mob had tied a rope when the police reached the scene.

It is noteworthy that the other man attacked, Louis Conconella, was innocent of any attempt at crime, and indicates how readily a mistake can be made in time of public agitation or excitement.

The police are bending every effort to give adequate protection and to further this end one thousand plain clothes men have been scattered about the city, particularly in the congested quarters, the scene of most of the assaults.

The first organized body to discuss this question is the Central Federated Union, which has appointed a committee to call upon the mayor with a demand that he take action that will put a stop to the attacks on children. It was stated that if the city authorities do not quickly stop the crimes, Governor Hughes will be appealed to.

A negro delegate spoke at the meeting at which the committee was appointed in praise of the "quick justice" of the south. This is significant of the feeling that exists in some quarters. Another suggestion made at the meeting was that unless the attacks were quickly stopped the Governor should call out the state militia.

Late last night the police received news of another attack which occurred in the suburb of Richmond Hill. Jennie Smith, 22 years of age, was attacked by two men while on her way home. Her screams brought assistance and one of the miscreants was captured.

WANT BETTER DESIGNS FOR AMERICAN COINS

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The resolutions for an improvement in the present United States coinage and the enlargement of the mint coin collection at Philadelphia, which were forwarded to President Roosevelt, Wednesday, were favorably regarded, according to a letter received by the secretary of the committee, Thomas L. Elder, from the President. The President says that he has called for a report on the need of the new coins by the secretary of the Treasury and that already work on a new coinage of the cent and double eagle is under way. The designs for the new coins were by the late Augustus St. Gaudens, and preliminary patterns were recently struck at the Philadelphia mint.

In their resolutions the committee recommended that Congress be petitioned to authorize an entirely new series of artistic design, to consist of ten denominations and in order that the designs of the new coins be truly artistic the best talent in the country should be called upon, to submit drawings.

NEW SALOON

Array of Legal Talent Is Imposing--Defendants Manage to Escape Facing Jury Until Thursday.

Many Residents Protest Against Liquor House in Dublin Canyon.

The application of Backstedt Brothers for a saloon license in Dublin Canyon, Eden Township, was recommended for granting by the license committee, but final action on it was postponed for one week, and before it will be disposed of a warm protest from residents of the district must be met by the petitioners.

This protest was read before the supervisors at their meeting this morning and, as a consequence, applicants and protestants were ordered to appear at the meeting of the Board Monday next, and make a showing as to the merits of their respective sides.

Among the protestants were Herman Gansberger, George Carlson, Frederick Johnson and Albert Shinn.

The objectors took the following ground:

The Board of Supervisors had no jurisdiction to either consider or grant the license.

The application did not state the names or residences of the applicants, how many applicants there were, whether Backstedt Brothers were, or how many such brothers were interested in the project.

Notice such as was required by law had not been given.

The application was not signed by at least six out of the ten nearest taxpayers.

The granting of the license would be prejudicial to public good and would be a private nuisance.

STANDARD OIL SAYS 'UNFAIR'

Archbold Declares Commissioner Smith Should Have Consulted Company.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—John D. Archbold, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company, made a statement today in which he declared that the company was not given an opportunity to be heard or to submit data in the preparation of the report prepared by commissioner of corporations Herbert K. Smith and made public. Archbold's statement follows:

"On Saturday, August 3, Judge Landis announced his decision.

"On Monday, August 5, Commissioner Smith's report is given to the public. This remarkable report of Mr. Smith marks another coincidence in the utterances of the different departments of the government in their attacks upon us that have occurred so frequently as to rob them of even the appearance of being accidental.

In connection with its publication it may not be amiss to remind the public that the act creating the bureau of corporations provides that such reports shall be made to the President for the purpose of guiding him in forming suggestions as to legislation and that they might be made public in whole or in part only upon the discretion of the President. It is sufficient now for us to say that in the preparation of his report Mr. Smith did not see fit to even confer with us. We think that the public will agree that we at least entitled to be heard on such a matter. If Mr. Smith had seen fit to confer with us we would have readily furnished him with the data for a truthful statement of the facts on this question."

Patrick O'Connell, 29 Clancy street, a horsehoeer, was examined. He was formerly a superintendent of horses in the fire department. He had a fixed opinion, and was excused.

James J. Mahoney, 560 Haight street, a builder, was called. He was excused as not being on the assessment roll.

Edward J. Mahoney, 2839 Baker street, knew nothing about the case, and had not even read about it. He said he had no bias or prejudice. He was passed by the prosecution. He said he would like to be tried, if accused, by twelve men in exactly his state of mind.

Attorney Schlesinger sprung a mild sensation by asking if a man disguised as a census officer, had called at his house recently to find out how he stood in reference to the graft cases. He answered in the negative. Attorney Johnson came back with a question as to whether he had been visited by anyone claiming to be from the district attorney's office. He answered "No."

FRIEND OF SPECKELS.

James R. McElroy, an insurance broker, living at 110 Pierce street, was examined. He volunteered the information that his family was closely associated with Rudolph Spreckels, but said it would make no difference with his verdict. Attorney Schlesinger had great difficulty in getting rid of McElroy, who did not want to serve, but who would not admit any bias.

It finally developed that he had a doctor's certificate, and this was resorted to in order to get him out of the box.

Charles A. Slack said he could not lay the opinion aside that he had already formed, and was excused.

HAYWOOD GOES BACK TO HIS DESK AGAIN

At the Union Headquarters

DENVER, Aug. 5.—William D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, was at his desk in the headquarters of the federation this morning.

A constant stream of visitors poured through the room, offering greetings and their congratulations on his acquittal of the charge of complicity in the murder of former Governor Steunenberg of Idaho. Mr. Haywood expressed his pleasure at his acquittal on his arrival last night.

Secretary Haywood looks well, although he says he is thirty pounds lighter than when he was arrested. He expects to remain in Denver for some time and as soon as possible will take up his work where he dropped it.

JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS MUST FACE A CONTEST

For His Senatorial Seat

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 5.—The Commercial Appeal today says that there will be a contest no matter which way the senatorial primary in Mississippi went, in the information that was received from several reliable sources in Mississippi last night.

Revised figures have reduced Congressman John Sharp Williams' lead to 755 votes and this may be reduced still further when complete corrected returns have been received from several remote localities.

EMBEZZLER IS CAPTURED

BERKELEY, Aug. 5.—A. E. Wilson, the contractor, who on July 3 disappeared from this city with $846.25 in cash belonging to Elmer Lamb, of 214 Shattuck avenue, has been arrested and is being detained by Chief of Police Bargrem, of Rockford, Ill. Chief Volmer received the following telegram Saturday:

"ROCKFORD, Ill., Aug. 2.—Have located A. E. Wilson about fifty miles from Rockford. Come or wire instructions.

"A. E. BARGREM, Chief of Police."

Chief Volmer answered immediately, instructing Bargrem to arrest Wilson, and that he would take steps to extradite him. Another telegram was received from Bargrem yesterday, stating that Wilson was arrested and that Wilson had engaged a lawyer and will fight extradition.

Volmer wired the following to Chief Bargrem this morning: "Officer leaves today with extradition papers. August Volmer, Chief of Police."

Detective Bert Fraser left this morning for the Eastern city where he will stay.

Wilson was employed by Elmer Lamb, a real estate dealer of this city, to construct a house on the corner of Bond and Virginia streets in the latter part of June of this year. He was given $846.25 by J. Lamb, which to pay the help and procure building materials.

On the morning of the 3d of July, Wilson was nowhere to be found. Lamb posted a notice of disappearance in the local and 20 description circulars were immediately sent broadcast over the country. Wilson's arrest came in the form of these circulars falling into the hands of Chief of Police Bargrem.

PHONE OFFICIALS BEFORE GRAND JURY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—The grand jury went into session this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The first business called was William Sexton, an insurance adjuster of the Firemen's Fund Insurance Company. His testimony was confined to the case of P. C. Dudley, who was indicted by the previous grand jury on a charge of filing a false report of losses after a fire in this city.

FEDERAL COURT FOR TRIAL

Array of Legal Talent Is Imposing--Defendants Manage to Escape Facing Jury Until Thursday.

When the case was called, Attorney Campbell appeared for Benson, and Peter Dunne and W. S. Woods for Perrine, while the government was represented by United States District Attorney Robert T. Devlin and Assistant United States District Attorney A. P. Black.

Judge De Haven asked if defendants would be satisfied to go to trial with the jury already sitting, but was answered in the negative. Consequently, a new panel of eight names was drawn, which will be returned Thursday.

PASS TWO JURORS AFTER STRUGGLE WITH TALESMEN

names will constitute the third panel far required for the case. After disposing of a number of preliminary matters, the court proceeded with the examination of these talesmen.

The first talesman on the stand this morning was the fiftieth to be examined. In the same ratio, the present panel should furnish at least four more jurors. Edwin C. Bonnell, cashier of the Savings & Loan Society, who is one of the four jurors accepted, created consternation this morning by asking to be excused from jury duty. He was considered a man absolutely unbiased, and his side was anxious to retain him when he was examined.

Mr. Bonnell made his statement by permission of the court.

"I suffered a fall," he said, "some time ago, injuring my arm. The nerves and blood vessels of my chest were affected, and at times I suffer considerable pain. I have been planning to get away to some of the springs."

"Under the circumstances," said Attorney Schlesinger, "I suppose we must consent."

"At the present time," said Attorney Johnson, "I do not see how we can consent."

JUROR HELD.

"Very well," said Judge Dunne, and Bonnell returned to his seat.

David Bierman, 1245 Webster street, a wine dealer's agent, was the first talesman called. He said he had a fixed opinion, but could give the defendant a fair trial. On further examination, he said it would take a good deal of evidence to remove his opinion. He was excused.

Patrick O'Connell, 29 Clancy street, a horsehoeer, was examined. He was formerly a superintendent of horses in the fire department. He had a fixed opinion, and was excused.

James J. Mahoney, 560 Haight street, a builder, was called. He was excused as not being on the assessment roll.

Waite Says He Refused Case as Claim on Relief Fund Was Too High.

BERKELEY, Aug. 5.—Echoes of the charge made by C. C. Henion recently against Colonel Henry deff. Waite, former commander of the State University, now attorney, by himself as the hospital, Waite had failed to make good his promise to use influence with ex-Mayor Phelan to collect relief claims in San Francisco, were heard in Justice Edgar's court this morning, when Waite's suit to collect $30 from C. C. Henion was begun. Waite has assigned his claim to C. H. Patterson, who appears as plaintiff.

Waite, in his testimony this morning, alleged that Henion had gone to him on June 1, 1906, and asked him to use his influence with J. D. Watson, head of the Red Cross Committee in San Francisco, to consider a claim for $1000 for services rendered by the California Hospital Company, of which company Henion was manager.

Through an agent of Henion, alleges Waite, he told that the claim was padded. He said that he was told that several items in the claim were fraudulent. Several days after hearing these charges, Waite sent word to Henion that he would no longer act as his attorney in the matter until it was proved to him that the claim was an honest one. He then sent in his claim for $30, which Henion refused to pay, resulting in the present suit.

MORE NOURISHMENT IN 10 CENTS WORTH OF PEANUTS THAN IN PORTERHOUSE STEAK

DR. JAFFA TELLS OF GOOBERS' VALUE

University Expert Says Salt
Does Not Aid in Nuts' Digestion.

BERKELEY, Aug. 3.—People who pay fancy prices for porterhouse steak could buy twice the protein the meat contains, and six times the energy stored in the meat, if they invested the dime in peanuts, at 5 cents a sack. They could do even better than that if they bought beans with the money.

Professor M. E. Jaffa, the eminent food expert of the State university, is authority for the foregoing remarkable statements. The declarations, with others equally important, are contained in a bulletin on the value of nuts as food which the United States government has just issued.

Dr. Jaffa is soon to resign his place on the university faculty as nutrition expert, which he has held for thirty years, to accept the higher and more lucrative post of chief chemist for the State Board of Health, his duties to consist in acting as a consultant in the board's campaign against food adulteration throughout the State.

SALT NOT NEEDED.

Dr. Jaffa, in his bulletin on "Nuts," punctures the old idea that salt eaten with nuts makes them more easily digested. He explains why it is that nuts seem to upset the digestive organs. Discussing these and other matters connected with the use of nuts, Dr. Jaffa says:

"When considering nuts it is readily observed that they are not only a source of food, but also a source of pleasure. It is the pleasure which is the chief reason why they are eaten. When eaten in moderation, they will purchase more than twice the protein, and six times the energy that could be bought for the same expenditure for porterhouse steak.

"It is of more than passing interest to note that 10 cents worth of peanuts will contain more than four ounces of protein, and 2777 calories of energy, which is more protein energy than is furnished by many rations regarded as adequate for a day."

USE ONLY WHEN NEEDED.

"With the exception, perhaps, of dried beans and cheese, no food material has such reputation for indigestibility that has been accorded to nuts. Discomfort from them is largely due to insufficient mastication and to the fact that nuts are often eaten when not needed, as after a hearty meal, or late at night, though it is undoubtedly true that nut protein as ordinarily eaten is not so easily or completely digested as meat protein. Very likely the concentration of nuts with but three to five per cent water, as compared to meat containing from fifty to seventy per cent water, is a contributing cause. If careful consideration were given to this matter and if attention were paid to the proper use of nuts and their counterparts in the diet, there would be an unfavorable comment on their digestibility.

Results and investigations carried on with fruit and nut diets at the California experiment station afford tentative conclusions regarding the thoroughness of digestion which should be of value to those who wish to use nuts as a staple article of food rather than as an occasional article of diet. In view of the facts resulting from the experiments regarding composition and digestibility of the diet used by the subjects in these experiments, it is evident that nuts must be regarded as the main source of protein for the fruitarians.

"The studies with fruitarians have all indicated that nut protein is fairly well assimilated; and that this is true of the average healthy person is well illustrated by an experiment with the university students who, though entirely unaccustomed to such fare gradually changed from an ordinary mixed diet to one of fruit and nuts, which he followed for a time without any apparent loss of health or strength."

"Whereas a popular belief that a little salt with nuts prevents the digestive disturbance resulting from eating them, to most persons salt undoubtedly adds to the palatability of the nuts, but no investigations have been found on record which demonstrate the actual improvement in the digestibility of nuts due to salt."

GOLD WATCH TO MARSHAL

Officer Presented With Token
for Saving Life of Two Drowning Women.

BERKELEY, Aug. 5.—Marshal Vollmer was presented with a beautiful gold watch from Colonel Andrews, in the presence of his full force at 3 o'clock this morning, the hour of "changing watch," by Acting Mayor Ferrier.

In presenting the watch, the acting mayor said:

"Mr. Marshal: So far, you have been a faithful officer and have done your duty without fear or favor as marshal of our town. The people of Berkeley know that you are worthy and well qualified to carry out any task you undertake. While on your vacation we learn that, at the risk of your own life, you saved two young ladies, who were bathing in the Russian river, from drowning. For this brave act, Colonel Andrews of San Francisco, a well-known California pioneer, has requested me to present you with this elegant gold watch, in which is engraved: 'August Vollmer from Colonel A. Andrews, in recognition of his bravery and heroism in rescuing Miss Vivian Freeman and Miss Cole Hervey from drowning, July 12, 1907.' May you carry this gift through life with credit to yourself and honor to the giver, as well as the people you protect."

MARSHAL RELUCTANT.

The marshal, in returning thanks, did not think he should accept the gift for only doing what any man would do under the circumstances, but as the gift is from one of the prominent pioneers and an athlete himself, he accepted it with pleasure, and he would prize the watch in the spirit it was given.

ACTING MAYOR.

After the ceremony, Ferrier referred to a like presentation to Officer Le Sprague, in the same rooms two years ago for an act of bravery in his encounter with three burglars at West Berkeley.

Reference was also made to similar heroic acts of rescue by other town officers. About two years ago, C. A. Blinn, a member of the last town charter committee, leaped from the Oakland and saved a lady from drowning, for which the government sent him a gold medal.

OTHER HEROES.

Thomas Schmidt, from the seventh ward, rescued a woman from the water at Clear Lake. Of course, the marshal is in the lead for having saved two at the same time.

Then the town has the brave little Isabel Watson to be proud of. While engaged in his work in a river, lake and bay, he was obliged to struggle in the great Pacific.

The people of Berkeley are proud of their list of plucky citizens.

DEATH COMES AFTER EVENING AT PARTY

ALAMEDA, Aug. 5.—Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kern of 3235 Briggs avenue, entertained a number of friends at their home and at 12 o'clock, when the guests left, Mr. Kern seemed to be in the best of spirits and in good health.

At 4 o'clock this morning his wife was awakened by his heavy breathing and his husband complained of pains near his heart. Simple remedies were applied to her husband to relieve him. When Mrs. Kern went to the kitchen for a water bottle she called to her husband, but he did not answer, and she found that he had died during her absence from the room.

Kern, who was a retired rancher, was 54 years of age, and is survived by a wife and five children.

An autopsy will be held and an inquest will determine the cause of death.

CHARGE AGAINST SALOON-KEEPER

Said to Have Violated the Law

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning a communication from J. C. The charges were unsupported, however, and the communication, which was as follows, was simply filed:

A Needed Theatrical Reform.

Where is the Moses or who will be the Moses to lead some of Oakland's theatrical patrons out of the bondage of systematically becoming belated in their attendance on performances?

Some people think it's chic to be late. Some others figure out that it's the proper thing to struggle down the aisles during the first act and disturb every one while they find their seats. These are a few of the excuses given—the fact remains that those who do it are selfish—just plain selfishness of the most egregious kind and abominable from the standpoint of breeding.

There are players who will not permit such an interruption to their performances, and it is noticeable that where their demands are known there are but few tardy persons. The player is not the only one to be considered. There are inalienable rights belonging to the persons who have paid for their seats hoping to enjoy themselves. It's annoying when they are trying to catch the drift of the introduction to a play to have to stand up and be rustled about in the dark, have their toes pinched and their bodies crushed by late arrivals who blindly smash their way through the seats and who take the usual time of chatter and noise to finally settle.

Such things are being made impossible in the larger theaters of larger cities and should be relegated with other antedated practices in Oakland. There is no reason why an audience should be penalized by the tardiness of others. After the opening of the first act the vast majority should rule and their rights be observed and the minority, the tardy ones, penalized by being forced to wait until the curtain has fallen.

This reform is not so new as to be one in which a manager takes the chance of offending. He can very nicely establish a custom which will cause protest from a few and bring out the blessings of many.

Who is going to be the first one to make the rule?

Mansfield Is a Wreck.

Whatever else may be said of Richard Mansfield his art is credited and the knowledge that he is so broken in health as to preclude his ever going on the stage again will be the saddest of news in this country.

For months this artist has been seeking rest from a breakdown and now the news is given out that he is a complete physical wreck and on the verge of succumbing to consumption. According to the statement of his wife the recent trip to England was of no benefit to Mansfield, and he has, roughened as the words may seem, come back home to die.

Just now America's great actor lies closely guarded in a cottage buried in the thick pine woods of the Saranac Lake region, declaiming his various parts between fits of coughing and sobbing like a child when his costumes shown him are carried from his sight.

It will be a shock to know that the once great mind and once fine physique are both shattered. It is the passing of another whose fine artistic mind, aesthetic taste and genius did so much for the stage.

Sad news for the millions of admirers that the experts of medicine see indications that Mansfield is in the grip of that dreaded disease, tuberculosis, and that the complications are neurasthenia and probable insanity.

A Bandit Monopoly Cornered.

In the United States District Court for Indiana, Judge Landis rejected the childlike and innocent plea blandly offered by John D. Rockefeller that the rebating and other violations of law were not perpetrated by the Standard Oil Company but rivals and competitors of that concern. Judge Landis found the defendant corporation guilty on every count and sentenced it to pay a fine of $29,240,000—an amount greater by 131 times than the sum the Standard Company realized from the particular rebates proved in court.

The judgment is a just one. The defense was a false pretense from beginning to end—a mere juggling with facts, terms and conditions. It was conclusively shown that the company to which the rebates were granted is absolutely owned and controlled by the Standard Oil Company. What it did was directed by the Standard Oil managers and the profits derived from its unlawful acts went to the Standard Oil stockholders. It was, in fact, the Standard Oil Company under an alias, selling Standard Oil products and working out Standard Oil designs while falsely pretending to be a competing rival.

It is the same sort of a concern as the Waters-Pierce Company operating in Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. After that company was expelled from Texas on the ground that it was a collusive agent of the Standard Oil Company, the president of the corporation, with the connivance of Senator Bailey, secured its readmission to the State by flat perjury. He made oath that the Standard Oil Company had no interest in or connection with the Waters-Pierce Company. Yet at that moment the Standard owned a majority of the Waters-Pierce stock and was absolutely controlling the company.

Nearly all the crimes committed by the Standard Oil Company have been perpetrated under aliases. Companies that have been crushed and captured or subsidiary corporations have committed the offenses under direction of the Standard managers and for the benefit of Standard stockholders. It is nonsense to say the Standard is not responsible for the criminal acts so perpetrated. Because a thief blacks his face and takes another name he is none the less guilty. The Rockefeller corporation cannot evade responsibility for its misdeeds by laying the blame on its creatures.

The new $10 gold certificate is a thing of beauty even if it is a "beating joy" with many.

A Connecticut baseball pitcher has a saloon as a side line. He uses the "high ball" both going and coming.

In the Commoner, Bryan says that Roosevelt gathers wisdom as the years roll by. It is sarcastically said that this is the difference between the two men.

A postoffice in Oklahoma has been named Skedee. In the Osage language this means Wolf-frozen-in-the-ice. That was merely a saving way of saying "23" to an unfortunate brute.

While on an aerial voyage Premier Clemenceau of France was scolded by the bursting of a pipe. The genial Secretary Taft will escape this one danger of getting into hot water because nature has safeguarded him from taking balloon trips.

The True Hero.

Another case of heroism which is likely to be overlooked. Pinioned beneath a mass of rocks in a pit where conditions were such that an attempted rescue might mean the death of the brave persons engaged in it, an Italian laborer helped amputate his own leg.

This was true heroism—the unselfish and brave act of one in whom was born the proper spirit.

Whether the man will survive his experiences rests with the future. Surgeons are doing their utmost. In any case, this laborer, ignorant as he was, was a true hero, and living he will benefit the world by his example, and dead leave a memory for all good for all time.

Regretful indeed is the fact that with so many possibilities there seems to be so few Presidential probabilities.

Just how are the Wall Street speculators going to blame President Roosevelt for the fact that a stock exchange seat formerly worth $100,000 has just been sold for $71,000?

King Edward has shown further evidence of that wonderful tact which has been a redeeming trait with him. He has conferred knighthood upon the Lord Mayor of Cardiff—a workman.

The Sultan of Morocco has reached the last lesson in his course of "How to Become Europeanized." A codon of warships will soon belt his domain and vast armies land to impress upon him the fact that the world has grown. It will be a shock to this ruler who until now saw life from the kaleidoscope of a Parisian corps de ballet.

THE LIMERICK LIAR.
In Idaho.
There was a girl in Idaho,
Who used to say: "If Idaho,
For him I'd fight
Both day and night,
Though every bush should hide a foe."

The Tooter and the Tooters.
A tutor who tooted the flute,
Tried to tutor two tooters to toot,
Said the two to the tutor,
"Is it harder to toot or,
To tutor two tooters to toot?"
Appearances Are Deceitful.
There was a young lady of Syke,
With a shape like a capital I;
She said, "I's too bad!
But, then, I can pad!"
Which shows that figures can lie.
—Ethel Watts Mumford.

Just So So.
There's a sewer called Miss Sussand,
Slow sewers she shows how to sew.
Says she, "If, So-and-so,
You sew so you'll sew slow,
So you'll only sew so-so. Sew so!"
—Westminster Gazette.

CATTLE INDUSTRY IN MEXICO IS BOOMING

The cattle industry of the State of Tamiapas, Mexico, is coming to the front. One stockman and commission man alone, Bartolo Rodriguez, shipped 48,000 head last year to Cuba and Yucatan, which amounted to $2,500,000. He has a fine ranch near the city of Tampico called Monte Alto, with 300 head of cows and bulls, costing about $500 per head, imported from the United States and Switzerland. Careful estimates made by the shippers to the north of Tampico place the total number of cattle and horses in that area at 1,000,000.

THIMBLES OF RUBBER FOR TYPEWRITERS

A useful invention in the shape of a typewriter thimble has lately been put on the market. It is a pneumatic thimble of rubber—a tiny cushion for whatever finger or fingers are most strained by the machine.

It is well known that the nerves in the finger tips of operators often become sore. They send nasty tingles of pain all up the arm. Sometimes they compel the sufferer to stop work for an hour or two. It is to protect these troublesome nerves—and it protects them perfectly—that the typewriter thimble has been invented.

Are You Feeding Baby Wisely—or Blindly?

ARE you certain, mother, that the food you are using is best for your baby?

We want you to prove for yourself just as far as you can that what we say is true when we assert that next to mother's milk Sanipure Milk is the ideal baby food.

Take the best authorities—compare the analysis of mother's milk with that of Sanipure Milk, or any other infant's food—and you will find that Sanipure Milk is very near to healthy mother's milk in what it contains and, in proportions, more nearly like mother's milk than any other substitute.

Sanipure Milk

Is Nature's own substitute for mother's milk. It is the balanced diet for baby—the purest of cow's milk with the indigestible casein modified in quality and quantity. Sanipure Milk acts in baby's stomach the way mother's milk acts. It breaks into tender digestible flakes—does not clot into a hard curd like plain cow's milk and other unbalanced foods, and fulfills every requirement, according to best authorities, as to what infant's food should be.

Sanipure Milk contains no cane or beet sugar—only milk sugar, the kind that agrees with baby—also protein fat and mineral substitutes in the quality and quantity so nearly like mother's milk that baby will grow plump, strong and healthy. Flabby fat is dangerous.

Don't feed your baby blindly. The formula is on every can of Sanipure Milk.

TALKS IN HIS SLEEP; WIFE CAUSES ARREST

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., August 5.—Because he talks in his sleep, Henry Robotzky, of Midvale, was arrested today on complaint of his wife. She was awakened during the night by Henry murmuring, "Mary, I love you."

Mary is the name of a neighbor, and Mrs. Robotzky jumped at a conclusion and at Henry at the same time.

Alderman Carthuff decided that Henry was guiltless. He fined Mrs. Robotzky half the costs for getting excited, and her mate the other half for talking in his sleep.

LEAVE DIAMONDS OUTSIDE AND ABANDON AUTOS

Rev. Martha Bortle Would Put Such Notices on the Outer Doors of Elegant Churches in Slum Districts.

CHAUTAUQUE, N. Y., Aug. 4.—The Rev. Martha Bortle, of Washington, D. C., speaking before the Chautauque Women's Club, said: "I should like to build elegant churches in the slums. Into these churches I should put the finest organs, the best singers and the most attractive preachers. And I would put up a large bulletin board in front with the following notice: "No persons wearing diamonds shall enter this church; no automobile shall stop at this church. "No one who rides in a carriage shall enter this church. Only those who walk or ride in a street car are entitled to a seat in this house." "Systematic and conventional theology has almost made the Holy Spirit a rare visitor in our churches. The work of the churches really resembles a wash day. The churches are working in better harmony than we think. The Methodist Church picks people up, the Baptists wash them, the Presbyterians blue them, the Episcopal Church starches them and the Universalists iron them. "I should like to endow a newspaper. I should publish all the real news, but keep the sheet free from filthiness. The reporters would not make the grammatical errors they now do. And then I should put all the accounts of murders, trials, suicides, divorces and such things on a page by themselves—the last page—so that parents could remove it to keep their children from reading these things. "The study of geology, music, art, theology, all add to the intellect, but they do not generate politeness. Some of the best educated people I know have the worst manners."

She Masters Paper Shell.

A lovely slip of a girl, possessed of a shy, elusive charm, Miss Melodie Garbutt, the last one in the world to suggest athletic accomplishments, has the unique distinction of being the only woman west of Pittsburgh to master the almost impossible art of sculling a paper shell. Very few of these paper shells exist in the world. The man who made them is dead and their manufacture is a lost art. That owned by Professor William Franklin at Playa del Rey is twenty-six feet in length, and only ten inches across. This tricky embodiment of a water sprite's vehicle, this fit carriage of a kelpie, is more than a match for the most expert of male scullers, and only the most accomplished can enter the fragile paper thing without upsetting it, or punching a hole through it by a misstep. Miss Melodie can not only seat herself in this shell, but can handle her craft to the envy of crack oarsmen, attaining a high rate of speed with a steady pull. Professor Franklin, her teacher, in his day, "stood all the knights of the spoon blades upon their heads," as some one has said, and he took the greatest pride in his young pupil, until the young girl and the curious craft might be seen any day at Playa del Rey shooting across the land-locked bay. Miss Garbutt has won four cups for rowing, and she is also an accomplished skipper, and she and her sister and their catboat, did, have sailed the bay at the little beach resort for three years. Soon their father's yacht will be launched, and the young girls expect to spend much of the coming season aboard.

HUSBAND SIGNS PLEDGE TO NOT GO WITH OTHER GIRLS

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 5. Mrs. Mary Melow Kerkik, of 2315 Aster street, Allegheny, entered the office of the marriage license clerk today with her husband and a face red with indignation. "I want you to make him stop going with other girls," was the demand she made of License Clerk Watson. Ten months ago, she explained, the clerk had granted them a license, and, according to the bride, "he has violated it."

UNFOLDING.

Ah, well, it's interestin'
Just to watch a baby grow;
It is some like watchin' rosebuds
Just when they begin to blow;
They twist their little fists about,
And round-eyed stare at you,
And then their fingers open
And they gurgle and they goo.

It's fun to watch the babies grow
And watch them learn to walk,
And learn to ask for what they want,
And learn to laugh and talk;
And learn to know the different ones
That come in, and be glad
When night is come and lights are lit,
And it is time for dad.

Oh, just a little boy or girl
To roll about the floor,
To creep on hands and knees to watch
For dad beside the door,
And later meet him at the gate,
And then, adown the street,
To watch his coming and to run
To him with flying feet.

Oh, you can have your blossoms,
All red and blue and white,
But I'll choose a bunch of babies
Watching for their dad at night.
And I'll watch their lives unfolding
Like the petals of a rose;
Oh, a laughing, gooing baby
Is the fairest bloom that blows.

SHAVES BEARD; TRIES TO KISS WIFE; JAILED

CLARION, Ia., August 5.—After wearing a heavy beard for forty years, Stephen Mahon sought to play a joke on his family by getting a clean shave. The result was that he was taken for a tramp and landed in the cooler by the city marshal.

Mahon first asked for a handout, but was refused. He then sought to embrace his wife, and the screams of the latter resulted in his incarceration for two hours before the family could be convinced that it was really "Pa."

Mahon says it is his last joke.

PRETTY GIRL LURES HER ANNOYER TO PRISON CELL

Clever Ruse Displayed Lands One Corner Loafer to Where He Belongs for Insulting Young Women.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Ray Solomon, a pretty young stenographer, may not be athletic, but she showed a presence of mind and wit in getting an Italian annoyance arrested and sent to the workhouse that won compliments for her in the Jefferson Market Court. Pursued for five blocks by the man, she informed her employer and then lured the man into the arms of a policeman, who bundled him to court with little ceremony.

Miss Solomon is seventeen. She lives with her mother at No. 113 East One Hundred and Fifth street. She is employed by a manufacturing chemist at No. 121 Prince street. Every morning she comes downtown in an elevated train to Houston street and she walks over to her place of business. This is the story she told her court and repeated afterward at her home:

"Houston street is an awful bad place for girls to walk on because of the groups of Italian corner loafers who molest and insult them as they pass. Of course if there is a policeman, or an American standing near, they let a girl alone, but she has to walk as fast as she can. Other girls have had worse experiences than I, for I always go with my eyes straight ahead, and I never let on that I hear or know they are on the earth. Their favorite way is to touch you on the hands and speak to you."

"I grew tired of this the other day and determined to have the best one that I could get. The opportunity came this morning. I had left the train and hadn't walked a block before this man came up to me, touched me on the hand and then deliberately placed himself by my side. I did not say a word or give any sign that I knew he was there except to quicken my pace. I made up my mind to have him arrested, but I did not want to make a scene."

"Although I walked faster he kept pace with me and began to ask me to go to Coney Island with him. He said he was a nice fellow."

"That thing lasted for five blocks until I was at the door of my business place. It was on I thought of a way; and I suddenly turned on him, saying: 'I don't think I care to go to the island without your boss's permission; if you wait I will ask for a half day off.'"

"He looked delighted and stepped back. I rushed in and told about it. My employer immediately went out and found Policeman Callahan at the Greene street corner and Callahan sent back word for me to come again, and if the man followed he would arrest him."

"SHORT SHRIFF FOR HIM. "I went out and walked fast toward the corner. The man ran toward me and reached me just as I got to the corner. Instead of me he met the policeman, who grabbed him and shook him up good. Then we all went to the court, where the judge and everybody else were very good to me."

"The prisoner in court said he was Salvatore Scarpa, of No. 434 East Eleventh street, and that he was married. When asked what he meant he was unable to reply. The magistrate, expressing sorrow that he could not punish him more severely, sent him to the workhouse."

Stand Up to Fit Shoes.

People would find less difficulty with ready-made shoes, said an experienced salesman, if they would stand up to fit them on instead of sitting down. Nine persons out of ten, particularly women, want a comfortable shoe, and it is with the greatest difficulty that you can get them to stand for a few minutes, even after the shoe is fitted. Then, when they begin walking about, they wonder why the shoes are not so comfortable as they were at first trial. A woman's foot is considerably smaller when she sits in a chair than when she walks about.

MEN SELL KISSES FOR FIVE CENTS EACH AND MAKE $1

Girls Willing Purchasers of Osculator Goods at Eastern Fete in Aid of Outing Fund.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 5.—Two good-looking young men were star attractions at a block party given for the North American Outing Fund last night, in Smalley street, between Westmoreland and Ontario streets. They announced that they were prepared to sell kisses for five cents each. All the girls in the neighborhood crowded around and giggled. A few of them said that for the sake of the outing fund, and not at all because they felt the need for kisses, they would invest. Messrs. Harding and Flow succeeded in disposing of just twenty kisses, making a total of one dollar.

The party was a big success. Everybody in the block took part in it, and Smalley street was as gay with lanterns and flags as a Japanese tea garden.

SIX-CENT COTTON

Senators, magnates of lordly air,
Hear the moan of the weaker sex;
Treat your colonies foul or fair,
Crush trades unions and railroads vex,
Base our money on gold or lead,
But give us, oh, give us, our five-cent thread!

Wages may rise or wages fall,
The Constitution and Flag may part,
Tariffs make beggars of us all,
Trusts may triumph in ev'ry art;
These are trifles, when all is said,
But give us, oh, gives us, our five-cent thread!

Beef may rise till the crack of doom,
And only the hoofs and tail remain
To the hungry worker at desk and loom,
Judges be blind to all but gain,
Courts may sever whom love has wed;
But give us, oh, gives us, our five-cent thread!

Statesmen and rulers in places high,
Hear our warning and wisdom learn,
Long have we eaten humble pie,
But even the worm at last will turn;
Water our milk and scant our bread,
But give us, oh, gives us, our five-cent thread!

BOLT OF LIGHTNING STRIPS GARTER, HOSE AND SLIPPER FROM WOMAN

COLUMBUS, Ga., Aug. 5.—Miss Hilda Clark is mourning a costly jeweled garter, one silk stocking and one slipper because of a prank played by a bolt of lightning.

Miss Clark was swinging in a hammock on the veranda of her home when the bolt came. Her left leg was hanging from the hammock and her dress was a bit elevated. The flash of lightning came and with it a scream from Miss Clark. She was found sitting in the hammock dazed. The bolt had struck the garter clasp, torn off the garter, ripped off the stocking and shattered her slipper. The bolt then passed into the floor, making a hole.

Miss Clark soon recovered from the shock. The only mark on her is a blue streak on her left leg, where the garter was worn.

WOMAN BURIED BY TONS OF HAY FOR FIVE DAYS

School Teacher Is Nearly Dead When She Finally Digs Her Way Out From Monster Stack.

MARION, Ohio, Aug. 5.—After being buried under twenty-five tons of hay for five days without food or water, during which time a bloodhound and hundreds of searchers passed within a few feet of her, Miss N. A. Black, a Pittsburg school teacher, who last Monday evening left a local sanitarium, was found yesterday. She probably will recover. She was discovered by two men on a farm alongside the old hay barn near which all trace of her was lost Tuesday.

Miss Black says she took a stroll into the country and when dusk was falling started home. It was chilly and she was but thinly clad. She entered a barn, got inside the hay and fell asleep. Tuesday morning the owner of the barn began filling the barn with new hay and by night it was full to the rafters. Yesterday, at most crazed by thirst, the woman burrowed out of the barn, but was so weak she fell where she was found.

Police Believe Organized Gang is Operating in Bay Cities and Vicinity.

Frank W. Baker, proprietor of the City Hall stables on Fifteenth street, between San Pablo avenue and Clay street, is the latest complainant who asserts that he has been made a victim of horse thieves. Saturday afternoon a team of black horses and a buggy for the purpose of taking a ride of the bay cities. The stranger may be riding now, Baker thinks, as he has not seen him since the stranger drove away Saturday.

The police believe there is an organized gang of thieves operating in the horse and buggy line. A. B. Selkens of Thirteenth and Center street rented a horse and buggy Saturday morning to an engaging-mannered stranger who was to return the rig that afternoon. It is still missing.

Only the other day Councilman Bacous accused a thief, who had taken his horse and buggy. The thief escaped cross-lots and Bacous, in an automobile, came up with him.

It is said that all the bay cities and towns, and adjacent country districts, are suffering from the loss of horses and vehicles. The police theory is that a rig stolen in one city is driven to another locality and sold to innocent purchasers.

One liverman has suggested that hereafter he intends to have a camera in his office with which he will "snap-shot" the features of every stranger who hires a team from him.

BARONET SPENT VAST FORTUNE IN 18 YEARS

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Sir Humphrey de Trafford, who with his beautiful wife, are well known figures in cosmopolitan society of Europe, has had remarkable financial career which ended in the bankruptcy court. At the age of 24 years, in 1888, the baronet inherited an estate with a gross annual income of nearly $35,000. However, he got into debt and contracted debts with the result that in 1890 he owed over $500,000. The indebtedness continued to increase until in 1904 there were creditors holding charges on his life interest to the value of $2,000,000, while an additional $200,000 was owing to unsecured creditors.

Though Sir Humphrey received out of the De Trafford estate $240,000 a year, he paid out of that $110,000 a year for interest loans and $125,000 returns on life policies. This left him only $7,000 a year with which to run his establishments at Martin and educate his children.

A special act of parliament, passed in 1904, helped him out of his difficulties, but since then he has again got into debt which has resulted in the present bankruptcy proceedings.

When asked how he came to get through such a vast sum in eighteen years, Humphrey admitted that he lost large amount betting and had to have recourse to the money lenders, some of whom he paid ten per cent interest. The baronet said the De Trafford estates, which are mainly in Lancashire, are increasing greatly in value and he is prepared to pay creditors 25 shillings to the pound.

GOLD THIEF STEALS LILIENCRANTZ'S AUTO

Automobiles have become so numerous it would seem that thieves steal now as boldly almost as bicycles are taken. A valuable automobile, recently purchased by Dr. Guy H. Lilienkrantz of 1397 Alameda street, was stolen in San Francisco Saturday by a thief. Dr. Lilienkrantz had stepped inside the Van Theaters for a few moments, and when he returned found his machine missing. Bystanders said that a well-dressed young man jumped into the car and the owner turned his back and drove off hurriedly. The police of both sides of the bay are hunting for the

POLICE AUTO AND TOURING CAR CRASH

While rounding the corner of Fourteenth street and Broadway yesterday afternoon, on its way to get an injured man, the new police auto of the Oakland police crashed into A. F. Baumgartner's touring car. The machines were separated and the police auto sped on. Baumgartner stepped out for the city and demanded $50 to pay for the damage to his machine, but as he had been on the wrong side of the street and Baumgartner refused to accept his request.

TREE SAVES GIRL'S LIFE

Young Woman's Fall Off Cliff Stopped by Oak Growing on Precipice.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Miss Maybelle Wilson of Chicago had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon, being saved by the branches of a scrub oak growing half way down the side of a steep cliff. Miss Wilson, with a party of friends, was automobiling in Marin county, and when they reached Coppola villa at San Rafael a trip to the Dominican convent was suggested, but Miss Wilson complained of a headache and remained in the machine.

Later she changed her mind and wandered up the canyon after her friends. She took the wrong trail by mistake, and found herself at the cliff over which the waterfall hangs rainbows. She tried to cross the creek and take a picture of the falls. When she was about half way across the stone on which she had stepped slipped and she was plunged into the stream and over the precipice, and into the branches of the tree. She hung head downward and the blood rushing to her head kept her from calling out.

Her friends returning saw a pool of blood in the path, and looking up saw their companion hanging from the tree. With difficulty they got her down and restored her to consciousness and then made a flying trip to San Rafael and physicians hope for her recovery, but she still is confined to her bed for several days. Her ankle is badly sprained and her face and body lacerated. She does not know just how long she hung in the tree, but her friends say it must have been fully half an hour.

PETERSEN AND OTHERS TAKE VACATIONS

His place will be filled during his absence by Sergeant Rock, who will take the day detail at the desk. Patrolman C. B. O'Brien has also been granted leave and will go on an extended tour of the East, his first visit in twenty years. HIGH MASS TO PATRON SAINT Pontifical Service Conducted by Bishop Da Silva at Feast of St. Ignatius.

The evening service, consisting of solemn vespers, sermon and benediction. The celebrant was the Rev. Father Friedman, the deacon, Rev. Joseph Sullivan, S. J., and the sub-deacon the Rev. T. Murphy. The sermon was by the Rev. Father Friedman and was on "St. Ignatius, the Man in Christ."

MAYOR CHARGED WITH SMUGGLING; DISAPPEARS

EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 5.—The Supreme Federal court, sitting in Juarez for the investigation of the wholesale smuggling operations uncovered in that city yesterday, handed down charges against Mayor Silvestre Montemayor, who disappeared on Monday night of last week, of smuggling twenty cars of wheat upon which charges he is liable to duties and penalties amounting to $60,000 and twelve years' imprisonment. Other charges, much more serious, are pending against Montemayor. There is no abatement of the excitement and it has been found necessary to call for reinforcement of Federal troops for guards over the prisons, courts and seized property.

ROB HOTEL'S CLERK OF $200

Two Masked Men Enter White Palace With Revolvers Levelled.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—At an early hour yesterday morning W. A. Daniels, the night clerk in the White Palace hotel, 1517 Market street, was held up at the point of a revolver by two masked men, who emptied the till of $200 and escaped to the street.

Daniels looked up from his desk and gasped into the muzzles of two revolvers that were pointed at him from the doorway. The men commanded, "hands up," and advanced toward Daniels. Daniels hesitated for a moment and then made a move as if to reach for a revolver. One of the men was instantly at his side, and pressing the revolver against his temple.

"If you make another move like that it will be all up with you," he said, and Daniels promptly obeyed the command to put up his hands. One of the masked men remained at Daniels' side while the other searched the hotel office. After taking what was in the till he searched the clerk, but got nothing.

When they saw that they had secured everything of value the two men took Daniels to the foot of the staircase, and making him turn his face from the door, threatening to kill him if he made any outcry, they made a hurried escape. Daniels later telephoned the affair to the police, and the department is making a search for the two men.

Waist Carnival

A Sale of High Grade Waists At Less Than Cost of Production

Here are waists from one of the most prominent makers in America. We secured them at our own price, with the distinct understanding that his name would not be mentioned in this sale. However, many of them bear his label, which you will recognize as the product of one of the most exclusive makers of high-grade waists. Enough said, the prices speak for themselves.

$1.75 Lingerie Waists 75c

Fine tissue lawns, elaborately embellished and beautifully tailored. We need only call your attention to the fact that not one of these waists can be sold regularly for less than $1.75, and at that price you would consider them exceptionally good values. These are new, fresh styles—many of them shown for the first time in Oakland.

$2.00 Waists $1.25

This manufacturer was noted for his splendid $2 waists, of which he made his specialty. No better values at $2 were ever offered anywhere, and that we are able to sell them to you at this low price we consider a fortunate occurrence. We urge you to take advantage of it. You will find some of the prettiest numbers at this price.

$2.50 and $3 Waists $1.75

Aside from the fact that most of these Waists are $3 value, the most particular virtues are the extraordinarily pretty styles, and your particular attention is called to the exquisite treatment of the embroidery laces and medallions. Never before, as far as we know, have such high-grade waists been offered at anything like this price.

European Makers' Samples at Half Price

Martine & Company's Brussels representative, having made the largest cities of the United States, ended his trip in San Francisco and disposed of his samples to us at just half their European cost.

They differ from the American sample lines in the fact that all sizes are represented from 32 to 44. These waists are made with hand embroidery—the finest lingerie waists that retail regularly for $15 to $40. Inasmuch as almost every waist is a different price and a different style, descriptions are simply out of the question. We have divided them equally among our Oakland and San Francisco stores and placed prices on them that actually bear no relation to their values.

To the ladies who are in quest of these high-grade lingerie waists we say, there is a great surprise for you—so attend the carnival and partake of these extraordinary and unusual offerings.

At the meeting of the board of supervisors this morning, Chairman Mitchell declared that the purchase of eight electric fans to be used in the County Recorder's office would mean the expenditure of money for nothing. As a consequence the requisition of Recorder Grim was laid over until next week until Supervisor Kelley may have time to look into the necessities of the situation. In his requisition Recorder

These fans are required to clear the office of dust when the janitor sweeps and dusts.

"As it is now, the dust rises and settles back on the floor, books and furniture and continues to accumulate.

"With these fans, the dust would be blown out of the windows and leave the hall comparatively clean.

The support of the requisition was announced by the clerk, Supervisor Kelley said:

"I understand," said Supervisor Kelley, "that in the Recorder's office the dust gets into the pigeon holes and that it can't get out and the only way to fix it is by electric fans."

BATTLING NELSON WILL WOO NATURE TO RESTORE HEALTH

Durable Dane Will Take Rough Journey in Mountainous Country With His Foxy Manager.

By EDDIE SMITH.

The announcement as made exclusively in THE TRIBUNE yesterday that Nelson would bet $10,000 against $3000 that he could beat Britt in a return match, the fight to come off about three months from the present time, or any time after that date to suit the Britt's convenience, is proof positive that the stout heart of the Dane has not been as badly battered as was at first thought.

After the fight, Nelson would make no excuses for his man's showing, and the public and press were of the opinion that the Nolan-Nelson combination had very wisely come to the conclusion that they had shot their bolt.

Nelson is about town again and appears as confident that he can beat Britt as he was before the last fight.

While talking with Nolan the other evening, the writer, after considerable questioning, finally got the silent Mr. William to loosen up for a bit and talk of the contest, and what he intended to do with Nelson.

Nolan is not making, and would not make, excuses for his man being beaten. He simply says that he is satisfied that in another contest Nelson will be a different man.

"When I came to the corner after the sixth round and in answer to my urging to use his right, said that he could not swing it and that he felt as if it had been dislocated at the shoulder, I felt that we had lost.

"When we fought Britt at Colma, Bat was a different man. In the clinches he used his short-arm punches with such force and rapidity that Britt or no other fighter living could invent a method of blocking them. At Goldfield it was the same and in this fight it would have been the same if the Battler had been right," said Nolan, and judging from the confident air with which he offers to bet his money at the above odds it would appear that he really means what he says.

When asked for the reason for Bat's poor condition he lightened up and had little to say. He did finally offer the suggestion, however, that it is not always whisky, cigars or cigarettes that kill a fighter, and that he made a great mistake in coming to the coast without the Dane, thus leaving him a free lance to do as he pleased.

While Nelson was in Chicago and at Hot Springs, reports of late hours and fast living reached the ears of Nolan, and it was with some difficulty that he was able to get Nelson away from his old friends who were showing him a good time.

With a view of building up the Dane and bringing him back to his old self, Nolan is planning a siege of out-door life in the mountains that should send the Dane into the ring the next time he starts a rejuvenated fighter. That is, if there is any vitality left for nature to work on.

Nolan says that in a short time he will secure two saddle horses and a few pack horses, with which he and Nelson will go into the mountains and rough it for about two or three months without even coming to the cities for provisions or supplies.

The men may be at the ringside when Britt and Gans meet, but immediately after the fight they will go back to the mountains.

The trip is not to be a vacation one with the men stopping at the mountain resorts, but is to be a trip such as will be of some benefit as well as pleasure to the little fighter.

The pack horses will carry blankets and the beds will be laid under the trees, with the wide, wide world as a bedroom and the soft side of the ground as the mattress.

If Nelson intends to fight again he would be foolish to even think of such a thing at the present condition he is in, for the beating that Britt gave him certainly did him no good.

There is no better way in the world for him to regain his lost strength, than such a trip as Nolan has planned for him and if it is carried out, the Battler may come back a new man.

Life around the cities would do him no good and unless some such treatment as Nolan has planned is given him, the public will hesitate to believe that he has regained any of his lost stamina.

The California Club has secured a card for their show at Dreamland next Friday night that has all previous attempts at the four-round match, put in the shade.

The card from top to bottom is a continual list of stars, and the cost of putting the card on will doubt greatly surpass anything that has yet been attempted in this line in San Francisco.

Big Bill Smith will meet Joe Kelly in the main event, and as both are well known throughout the State as top-notch men, the contest will attract attention all over Northern California.

The remainder of the card includes bouts between Paul Martin vs. Tom Woods, Harry Riley vs. Ed Carter, Smiling Jim Kane vs. Frankie Edwards, Jim Horner vs. Antonio LaGrave and Charlie Weber vs. Tom McCarthy.

Seattle Fans Run Amuck at Decision

SEATTLE, Aug. 5.—"Red" Ehret, one time the crack pitcher of the Louisville club in the big league, came near being mobbed here yesterday. Ehret was umpiring a game between the Seattle team and Butte. In the final inning of the contest Ehret did not see a play at first base with the result that the visiting team scored the winning run, and when the game was over the attendance swarmed on the field and threatened Ehret.

The right field bleacherites fought to get at Ehret, and the fight that occurred, the bleachers broke down and nearly one hundred fans were spilled on the ground.

Some of the bleacherites fell fifteen feet with others on top of them. Half a dozen boys were injured though none of them seriously.

During the excitement Ehret escaped to the club house, but after the game he got a registered letter from President Lucas containing his dismissal from the staff of umpires.

Bay City Team Wins the Race

The Bay City Wheelmen won the fifteen-mile relay race for the trophy offered by the Oakland Fourth of July celebration committee yesterday on the speedway at Alameda. New Century Wheelmen finished second, Golden City third, Oakland Wheelmen fourth and Central City Wheelmen fifth.

The race had been previously ridden on the Fourth of July at Emeryville and Bay City won the event, but the Oakland Wheelmen were disqualified and the race given to New Century.

The racing and records committee of the California Associated Cyclists decided that the race should be ridden over and New Century readily agreed. The Bay City team left the ownership of the cup beyond dispute in the race yesterday.

Her riders covered the course in the good time of forty-three minutes and forty-nine seconds.

For the first four relays the race was between Bay City and Oakland. In the first relay Goetz of the Central City Wheelmen had an accident, which cost his club a quarter of a mile. Back of the Oakland Wheelmen finished first in the first relay in ten minutes and twenty-five seconds, with M. Sullivan of the Bay City Wheelmen a close second.

In the second relay Schiller of the Bay City outstripped McKnight of Oakland and gained a slight lead. Don Trego regained the lead for Oakland in the third relay from Halsted of Bay City. Daggett of the latter club assumed the lead early in the fourth relay and came near overhauling the outdistanced Nelson of Oakland. In the meantime the riders of the other clubs had been making up the lost ground and when it came around to the finish and final relay all of the riders were practically on even terms.

The riders alternated in setting the pace in the last relay and when it came to the sprint McLaughlin of the Bay City Club had the most lead and headed the cup by a narrow margin.

A member of the New Century team rode a splendid relay and came near overhauling McLaughlin. Doyle finished for the Golden City team, Carroll for Oakland and Price for Central City. The fastest relay was ridden by Schiller of the Bay City, who completed his three miles in seven minutes and fifty-five seconds.

Valentines Beat The Mellos Team

At the Twenty-third Avenue Athletic Park Sunday morning the Valentines, the swift little Twenty-third Avenue ball team, easily defeated the big Mellos of East Oakland for a third time this season, having played this bunch two previous games when they were called the Aerols. The game was nip and tuck, with a score of 12 to 10 to the fourth inning, and the local fans naturally looked for a hard battle, but there was nothing doing, as the Valentines, who were called the Aerols, walked away from them and walked them to the tune of 16 to 7 amid cheers from the bleachers. Features of the game were a home run each by Jordan and Ferreira and a hard one-hand catch by Souza. Following is the line-up and game by innings:

In a game of baseball that was full of thrills the Oakland Commuters took the San Francisco Seals into camp at Freeman's Park yesterday morning by a score of 8 to 2.

In the afternoon the Seals retrieved themselves by coming across with a 8 to 1 victory over Oakland.

The morning game was a hummer, and the action was so fast that it kept the large crowd on their feet throughout the contest.

Carnes and Henley, opposed to each other on the rubber, fought a pretty duel. Better control, better support and game-ness won for Carnes.

San Francisco had several chances to score, but they allowed them to slide by wayside, and would pay no heed to the call of opportunity, although it knocked on their door in more than one inning.

In the fifth and sixth inning the Seals had great opportunities to win, but they let them slide, and after that they didn't seem to care much how the weather cock pointed.

The Commuters got busy in the first inning and Van Halteren's walk, Helmtmuller's double, a wild pitch by Henley and Jack Bliss' ripping hit netted them two runs in the opener.

The Seals got one back in the second when Williams tripled and Esola came through with a single.

From this period up to the sixth there was no scoring. Then the Seals got busy. Esola popped up a fly to Helmtmuller, which that gent let fall. Henley followed with a sacrifice, and Shaugnessy tore off a single, scoring Esola and tying the game.

Matters were at a deadlock up until the eighth inning when Carnes picked out a nice one and whammed it on the proboscis for a triple. Smith followed with a single that won the game for the Oakland team.

The contest was one of the prettiest yet seen on an Oakland grounds. The players were on their toes all the time, and they kept the rooters in a ferment of excitement.

In the opening inning Helmtmuller pulled off a play for which we are willing to take our hats off to that large gentleman. George Wheeler hit a grounder at him and loafed on the rap. Helmtmuller was on the job and by as pretty a piece of quick thinking as we have seen on the diamond, he tossed out Danny Long's handy man at first base. It was a great play and Helmtmuller was cheered to the echo when he returned to the bench.

The honor of the Seals is saved. This day's scoring that was going on, win the pennant or jump the second place or anything like that, but it signifies that they are preserved from the humiliation of falling seven times without a miss before the Commuters.

Barney Joy, the Honolulu kid, came to the bat and showed his liver. He struck out before the admiring throng. He rescued them by two runs and he would have done better than that if his foot had not slipped and he fell down in the last inning of the battle.

Barney possessed everything. Nobody will object to his statement, "I got the ninth inning hit. The Seals got one hit by Henley. The Kanaka south winder was twirling his left mitt to a fare thee well, and he thought that anything he tossed, he made nine of the Oakland crew walk back to the bench after they had been struck out and worried. He thought that he would be a shutout for the Honolulu dandy.

Not a run showed till the seventh, when the Seals proceeded to break up in a bunch. The Seals were in a sore, the ribs by one that Cates shot wild. Williams bunted and Cates threw the ball away at first base, leaving the Seals in a jam. Irwin ran as far as third on the

REFORM IN RIGHT WAY

Senator Perkins Discusses the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican Club.

"I am heartily in favor of all movements which have for their object the betterment of the Republican party," said United States Senator George C. Perkins at his residence in Vernon Heights to a Chronicle reporter.

"I was not invited to be present at the meeting of the newly formed Lincoln-Roosevelt League in Oakland, but if these gentlemen are working for the purification of the Republican party I am earnestly in sympathy with them. I believe that all reforms in the Republican party should be corrected by the great body politic, and where such wrong exist they should be righted by Republicanism itself. The Southern Pacific exercises an undue influence on the destinies of the party, this wrong should be corrected by the people, for there should be no one man power in the party."

"I do not believe that any official of the Southern Pacific or the Western Pacific or the Atchafalpa, Topeka and Santa Fe roads should have any power whatsoever to influence the action of the Republican party in any matter affecting the people, nor should the sugar trust or the oil trust, or any other trust, or private interest sway the action of the Republican party in this state. There is not a Republican in the great State of California, or indeed in the United States who will not fully subscribe to this doctrine, and shall welcome, as I do, any honest purpose to purify the party of any existing evils. I might say that I have been the pioneer in the advocacy of direct primaries for the people, and first urged direct primaries six years ago. I have been strongly in favor of the election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people, and have frequently spoken along these lines in Congress. I believe that it is a fundamental doctrine in the Republican party that the people have the better it will be for the general welfare of the country."

ABUSES NON-UNION MAN; GETS ARRESTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Edward Callaghan, colored, was arrested at Market and Hayes streets at an early hour this morning by Police Officer Maloney and booked at the city prison on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Callaghan had been having a night out, and amused himself by calling names to the switchmen employed by the United Railroad at the crossing. His actions became so violent, and his utterances so loud, that a large crowd collected and was very much amused at listening to him. Police Officer Maloney, however, failed to see the funny side of the situation and took Callaghan into custody.

The man proved lucky, however, for his case was assigned to Judge Connelley, and the judge immediately recognized him as the neighbor who took care of his temporary quarters on Divisadero street right after the fire. He was dismissed with a reprimand.

PRISONERS PRESENTED WITH READING MATTER

Gardner Louis Cobb of the Court House grounds, played a benevolent role this morning when he presented a small library to the inmates of the County Jail. For months past he has been collecting books, magazines and papers. These he prepared in a large bundle this morning and carried them to the jail, where he presented the reading matter to Chief Jailor Fred L. White in return for extended appreciation in behalf of his prisoners.

LITTLE BERRY PATCH RETURNS GOODY SUM

No finer lot of raspberries have been seen at the Chamber of Commerce this year than some Golden Queen variety brought in by R. B. Nixon of 487 Forty-ninth street, the Little Berry Patch. These berries were grown in a small patch of 50x75, and already this season, aside from bearing sufficient to supply three families, Nixon has sold berries to the amount of $108.

CAUGHT BY POLICE WHILE BEATING WIFE

Joseph Marks, a powerful young blacksmith, living at 910 East Fourteenth street, was arrested Saturday night by Patrolman Rogers for wife beating. The policeman caught him in the act. According to the woman's story, Marks has been in the habit of ill-treating her. She says he is degenerate.

PROPRIETOR OF HOTEL PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Peter Fixel, former proprietor of the American Hotel on Alameda Point, pleaded not guilty this morning before Judge Melvin on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Fixel is said to have sold his hotel property to Carl Rithner for $1400. After purchasing the hotel, Rithner claims that the hotel was on "ceased ground" from the Southern Pacific. Fixel's trial was set for September 10.

AGNES WAS SO VERY EASY DEATH COMES TO MRS. JOYCE

Let a Young Man Touch Her for $8 Because He Talked Marriage.

Attracted by the musical strains wafted on the breeze from Shellmound Park yesterday, Miss Agnes Lang of 2009 Folsom street, San Francisco, wandered into the park and soon became interested in the festivities she discovered in progress. In the dancing pavilion she also made the acquaintance of a nice young man who, she says, told her that his name was Walter Connell, and hinted that she would be filled with rapture if she would consent to be Mrs. Walter Connell.

Miss Lang wanted time to consider the proposition, and, with Connell, came into Oakland, where the couple partook of supper in a restaurant, while talking over their future plans. Miss Lang says, she entrusted her purse, containing $8, to the keeping of her "dear" Walter.

Walter is keeping purse and money yet, as far as she knows. After leaving the restaurant, Miss Lang finally concluded the time had arrived when she must tear herself away from the company of Walter. He accompanied her to the railway depot, and just before the train pulled out he succeeded in slipping away out of sight of Miss Lang.

The deserted damsel went to a policeman and told her troubles. Connell has not been discovered as yet.

RIDES INTO ELECTRIC; RIGHT THIGH BROKEN

William Webb, an 11-year-old school boy living at 1370 Twelfth avenue, sustained a fractured right thigh this morning while riding a bicycle along Fifth avenue and East Twelfth street in East Oakland. The young fellow rode behind one electric car and into another which he did not see. He was thrown to the street, but before the car could be upon him it was stopped and the boy removed from his perilous position nearly under the wheels.

The child was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Dr. H. D. Bell reduced the fracture. The little boy was game and did not utter a cry while the hospital surgeon was placing the limb in splints.

DIVORCE SUIT BEGUN; FINAL DECREE ISSUED

Suit for divorce was commenced today by Minnie F. Walker against Laurence H. Walker, on the grounds of desertion. The couple were married in 1900 and have no children.

Leona G. Heyns was given a final decree of divorce this morning by Judge Melvin against Charles L. Heyns, a San Francisco teamster, who is accused of beating his wife when he came home drunk. The custody of three minor children and $25 a month alimony were awarded to the wife.

FRENCH TROOPS TO HURRY TO MOROCCO

PARIS, Aug. 5.—The expeditionary force to be sent to Morocco by the French government will consist of two battalions of Alger sharpshooters, a battalion of the foreign legion, making a total of 2400 infantry, batteries of artillery, 300 light cavalry and half a squadron of cavalry.

Four of these troops will be embarked at Oran on board cruisers and the remainder at Algiers aboard transports.

ADVISES PHYSICIANS TO LEARN TO COOK

BERLIN, Aug. 5.—Dr. Wilhelm Sternberg, a leading Berlin specialist, has launched a campaign in favor of including a course in cooking in the training of physicians and surgeons.

He asserts that many doctors have a habit of prescribing a diet for patients with regard only to the chemical ingredients, forgetting that it is not the intrinsic nourishing qualities which the food contains, but the relish wherewith it is eaten which is all important to the healing of nature.

Physicians and surgeons, therefore, in Sternberg's opinion, should be given practical instruction in the culinary art so they may recommend not only strength building food but food that will taste good when well cooked, and, through being keenly appetizing, will assist in the process of recovery.

"FIGHTING CHAPLAIN" DIES

PEOPLE OF SPIRIT WORLD BUSY INVESTIGATING MAN

Statement Made by Scientist Hyslop, Who Declares He Talks With Spirit of Father and Friend.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—That man may attain to real knowledge of the life in the spiritual world while yet on earth in the flesh, provided he make earnest research in this particular field of endeavor, was a statement made by Dr. James H. Hyslop in a lecture held under the auspices of the California Club in this city yesterday.

Dr. Hyslop uttered the rather unusual, if not strange, belief that a society for psychical research exists in the land of spirits, working along the same lines as man is doing on this earth. He gave it as his belief that the limited and the vast phenomena of the spirit world are due to a kind of "dream state or delirious condition" in which the spirit exists.

The lecturer spoke as a scientist, "Science and the Future Life." His told of experiments upon which his belief in spiritualism is based. And when he had finished with his lecture Professor Hyslop invited questions from the audience.

The lecturer began by tracing the beginning of the spiritualistic idea. He outlined the arguments made by the expounders of the materialistic theory. Then he told in detail of the numerous experiments made by himself and the late Dr. Hodgson of Boston in the case of Mrs. Piper. He told of the communication he had with the spirit of the late Dr. Hodgson through the medium of Mrs. Piper. In the end he summed up his lecture by stating that a belief in a future life was necessary to restore the ideals of a higher life.

TO OVERCOME MATERIALISM.

Here are some of the utterances made by Professor Hyslop during his lecture:

"The spirit in transmitting communications, has to get in some abnormal condition that it is not explainable. It is like the dream state or a delirious condition. It is a condition that puts a limitation on communication, and makes it at times somewhat confused."

"We are on the downhill today because of the materialistic idea. There is an economic condition all over the country. You can see what condition the politicians leave our country in. You can see it in and out of the labor unions. The rich man and the poor man disregard the church. We must overcome materialism in both classes and cultivate a belief in the higher life."

EXPECTS DEFINITE KNOWLEDGE.

"I think we shall get some definite knowledge of the place beyond, but it will be long and tedious task."

"I believe, and my belief is based on scientific research, that psychical research is just as thoroughly organized on the other side as it is on this."

A belief in spiritualism would make poor people a little more satisfied with their condition. At the same time I do not believe they should be satisfied with their present conditions.

"We must approach the subject with freedom. In investigating spiritualistic phenomena we have a great deal of fraud. Fraud overruns the Pacific Coast. Phys-

WOMAN'S EDUCATION ALL WRONG, SAYS MRS. FISH

Society Leader Declares It's Better to Be Old Maids Than to Marry Men Who Are Inferior.

(BY ANGELA MORGAN.)

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 5.—The interview given below was especially granted to the Hearst News Service representative yesterday by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish at her palatial villa, Crossways. It is the only authorized interview she has given in several years. Mrs. Fish spoke with dignity, yet with keen enthusiasm.

"It is all a mistake—the tradition that keeps a woman down and insists she is able to fill only one place—that of the domestic, the housekeeper. It is a great mistake to insist that marriage is the end of a woman's existence. For centuries women have been taught that the great ambition of life was to marry and settle down."

"That is all wrong. A girl should be taught first to develop the best in herself, in her mind. The woman should not be said to be called an old maid. Far better be an old maid than marry a man who is not one's equal, one who is not companionable."

DON'T WED INFERIOR MEN.

"So many girls and women commit the folly of marrying inferior men simply because they are afraid they will be ridiculed if they remain single. It is absurd that a woman who does not marry before she is thirty be considered an old maid."

"The idea of bringing girls out in society simply for the purpose of marrying them off is vulgar. The entire education of women has been wrong. Tradition has hampered women. But above all, I believe women themselves are largely responsible for their own false position in the world."

"How do you hold them responsible?" I asked. Her answer came promptly: "I think they stand by each other as if they were a group of scientific investigators. If women would unite their rightful heritage, the position of the sex would soon be very exalted."

"But what are we to do in the present state? Women are quick to stand up for their rights. A woman is the first to pronounce the opposite is true. She thinks that the other is the better and the other is the worse. I would urge women to unite to help one another."

WOULD LIVE FREE ART.

Mrs. Fish during the course of our talk made a remarkable assertion. "I would rather be a great actress or a great writer than have all the wealth and social position I could command," she said. "Because the woman with a profession has achieved something that lives a life of growth and power. It is power that counts and the development of one's individuality. That is the greatest thing."

"I sincerely believe that women can be whole emancipated intellectually. If they determine to improve themselves, they will. The individual woman entirely believes that a woman may become anything she wills to become. I believe that the great force, the one thing that gives a woman the right to the command of every human being, is a woman who has it in her to progress can do anything. She has the force to her aid also, to any height she desires in this world."

"Any woman may be what she wills to be. She may be what you call a courtesan. No one can make you what you are. If you have the force of character within you, you can compel conditions to serve you."

$5 TO SPOUSE; $10,000 TO SON

Will of Woman Recently Deceased Cuts Off Husband Confined in Asylum.

Mrs. Eugenie Gombert, who died in West Berkeley on July 23, left the sum of $5 to her husband, Auguste Gombert, an inmate of the insane asylum at Napa. In the will filed for probate this morning the woman states that her husband is entitled to the community property, but from an estate exceeding $10,000, which the petition states is its valuation, the decedent gives only $5 to her spouse, while the remainder of the property is devised to her son, Adolphe Rudolph. The son resides in West Berkeley.

For several years past the husband had been of unsound mind, according to the statement made in the petition for probate as filed by P. A. Bergerot, who asks for letters of administration on the estate.

MISS WATSON'S FAIR LIZZIE A GAY DECEIVER

about what the future has in store for Miss Maybelle and her rescuer at age.

TELLS OF AFFIDAVIT.

C. B. Watson, father of Miss Maybelle, returned from the north last Saturday, and then gave out the news concerning Miss Maybelle's plans to prepare an affidavit exonerating Officer Hawes of the hideous charges of cruelty and cowardice which various persons made, as an aftermath of the wreck happenings.

Between the lines of this forthcoming affidavit, the curious ones expect to get glimpses of the Berkeley man's regard for the brave officer who pulled her from the water on to the raft where safety was to be had.

Officer Hawes showed his intense admiration for Miss Maybelle as soon as he got to land after the wreck. His first words were words of highest praise for Maybelle Watson's bravery. He told how she had floated for hours in the water, helping to keep aloft a woman companion, and also he told how, when the boat went near the two floating bodies Miss Maybelle refused to be taken aboard until her helpless companion was first attended to.

BECOMES HEROINE.

That was a brave deed of a brave girl. Officer Hawes related it and Miss Watson at once became the heroine of the wreck, a figure which showed prominently in the limelight. She was famous.

After charges were made, subsequent to this, reflecting upon Hawes's conduct during the wreck events, he feared most of all what the effect of the charges would be upon Miss Maybelle's opinion of him. He worried over the matter long and long, and he finally went almost insane brooding over this phase of the affair.

Hawes also came to Berkeley and subscribed liberally to a fund which is being made up here to buy Miss Watson a beautiful gold watch.

Now that Miss Maybelle has heard of the charges against Hawes she is to do her part toward setting the man right. Her affidavit is being prepared. It will have to be here. It is expected to create a sensation.

Just now the great inquiry is: "Will the affidavit clinch the belief that Miss Watson and Mr. Hawes are the central figures in wonderful romance of the sea, or will it be merely a cold, legal document, like those which lawyers prepare for court proceedings?"

The answer to that query is expected to settle the question of whether Cupid is the central figure in the romance of the sea, or whether it is merely a cold, legal document, like those which lawyers prepare for court proceedings?

BULLET PLOWS THROUGH NECK

Young Man Is Seriously Wounded Through Uter Disregard of Warning.

In testing a revolver to ascertain whether it would explode without pulling the trigger, Harry Carter, a laborer, was shot through the neck yesterday afternoon by his own negligence, and now lies at the County Infirmary suffering from the wound inflicted by a pistol belonging to Deputy Constable J. Keating at 852 Broadway.

Carter was in Keating's room conversing about the revolver, when the officer warned the young man that the weapon was loaded. Despite the warning, Carter picked up the pistol and dropped it on the table.

A 32-caliber bullet entered Carter's neck very close to the jugular vein. The man expired before the bullet was located. He was taken to the County Infirmary, where he was treated by Dr. W. H. Irwin.

There being no other quarters where he could receive attention, Carter was sent to the County Infirmary, near San Leandro.

HELD FOR BURGLARY.

Frank Vondero, arrested last month on two charges of burglary for entering and looting offices of local dentists, was today held by Police Judge Smith for trial in the Superior Court, bail being fixed at $2000.

EATING IN CAFES

has driven many a man into matrimony, according to a squib written in an eastern fiction journal. The writer, it is safe to wager, is not a married man, but even at that he is giving the cafes too much credit. He writes that he has seen factories whose drinks are served with light meals. Such places are very likely to promote the marriage habit, because they bring one into contact with good and wholesome-looking men and women—important essentials to a matrimonial undertaking. Take Lehnhardt's, for example. What a man under 70 can lunch at Lehnhardt's without feeling in a very good humor for most any pleasant and praiseworthy enterprise before he pays his meal check? Have you been in it lately?
